Monadnock Area Cars & Culture Welcomes Toasty Buns as a Food Vendor for the 2026 Car Show

Swanzey, NH — Monadnock Area Cars & Culture is excited to announce that Toasty Buns, one of Keene's most beloved street-food vendors, will be joining the 2026 Monadnock Area Cars & Culture Car Show as an official food vendor.

Toasty Buns, owned and operated by Ryan Grandmont, has quickly become a local favorite since launching in 2023. What started as a small hobby pushcart evolved into a full food truck serving grilled all-beef hot dogs, toasted New England-style buns, loaded nachos, and fresh-squeezed lemonade—a menu that has helped the business build a passionate community following in downtown Keene.

The secret behind Toasty Buns' popularity lies in its simple but high-quality approach:

- Signature toasted, buttered New England rolls
- A customizable toppings lineup featuring chili, cheese, bacon, jalapeños, fried onions, sauerkraut, and more
- Fan-favorite fresh-squeezed flavored lemonades, served in generous quart-sized cups
- Seasonal beverages such as cider and cocoa during colder months

"We're thrilled to have Toasty Buns join us this year," said Lee Johndrow, Event Organizer. "Their grilled dogs, big flavors, and family-friendly vibe are a perfect match for the atmosphere we create at the show. People love them—and we know our attendees will too."

Toasty Buns regularly serves customers at its Railroad Street location in Keene and participates in a variety of regional festivals and community events, often supporting local nonprofits and family-oriented activities. The food truck has become a staple of downtown Keene lunches and weekend gatherings.
